

Who's the baby?

Another simple fundraiser, all you need is a few willing colleagues or friends who don't mind their baby photos on show for all to see! Follow these simple steps and do your own 'Who's the baby?' competition.

- Ask a few friends or colleagues to bring in photos of themselves as a baby, the funnier the better. If you don't have enough people to ask, you could always use celebrity photos from the internet.
- Display all the photos on the office notice board, or staff room and invite all the other members of staff to guess who's who. Make sure you number each photo.
- Using the sheets in the pack, each member of staff writes down who they think each of the photos is of. You set the price to enter the competition.
- The winner is the person who guesses the most correctly. If there is a tie, use the photo of a famous person (at the end of this pack). NB For the tie-breaker people are not allowed to guess the same answer.
- The winner could either get a cut of the money raised, or if you have a spare box of chocolates or bottle of wine, use that instead so the full amount raised goes to Aspire .
